The Joan of Arc Statue Com.
% The American Numismatic Society
Broadway between 155th & 156th Sts.
New York City

Dear Sirs;

For some time past I have been trying to find out if it is possible to secure a catalogue, showing the different statues, medals, etc of Joan D'Arc. Two things in particular I am most interested in; the statue before the Church St. Denis, Paris and a small medal.

Both of these I found listed in a book published by your Society. In this book each exhibit was numbered and the statue was no. 302 and the medal was no. 70.

Enclosed is a stamped envelope and I would be very grateful to you for any information you may be able to give me. Thanking you for the same,

Respectfully

Gertrude E. Huff

Dear Madam:

Responding to your letter of September 5th, I regret to advise that the Joan of Arc catalogue to which you refer is no longer in print, nor do we have a copy that is available for sale.

Perhaps I misunderstand your desire. Are you trying to secure a reproduction of the statue and the medal, or are you perhaps endeavouring to secure a copy of the medal itself? It is possible that it was published by the French mint, and if this is the case, you should be able to secure a specimen for a small sum by writing to them.

If this information is any value to you I shall be very happy.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.
